

The Three Wise Insurance Execs: an insurance Christmas story

About the webinar

This amusing and fun webinar will look at the magic of the Christmas story through the eyes of The Three Wise Insurance Execs, as they set out on their camels to reach The Lloyd's Building in London, above which a guiding star shines brightly. During their journey the execs will meet the Ghosts of Insurance Past, Present & Future and they will enlighten us with a review of the insurance world in 2024, current issues, and what we can expect in 2025 and beyond. The story will be narrated by Jeff Heasman using specially commissioned artwork.

Webinar length

1 hour

Learning Outcomes

By the end of this webinar, participants will be able to

- identify key events over the past year in the insurance industry.
- understand the current issues in the market and predicted trends for 2025 and beyond.
- implement a strategy to deal with predicted future trends in the insurance industry.